

Dayakar Puskoor biography :

Dayakar has lead JP Mobile towards its successful acqizition by the Santa Clara based Good Technoloy Inc. At JP Mobile, he lead the company pioneer as the industry's first mobile software development that set industry benchmarks with its scalable software architecture extending and managing corporate data on handhelds. He oversaw the Company's growth and drove initiatives that reinforced the Company's leadership in the mobile software industry. He also secured the Company's $55 million in financing. Recognized by the U.S. White House as a mobile technology expert and frequently is invited to speak at industry events. Previous experience includes a distinguished 10-year career at Motorola, where he held key management, product development and wireless technology positions. Among his achievements was the design and development of Japan's first wireless messaging system. He has authored numerous patents and was the recipient of several awards for engineering and systems development. Dayakar is currently working as VP at Microsoft.