

ANDRA JYOTHI NEWS Date: Feb 13, 2006
GAJAL SRINIVAS PROGRAMME, SURYAPET.

REAL SOULFUL JOY LIES IN HELPING OTHERS:GAJAL SRINIVAS

The popular musical artist and Gajal singer reiterated that real pleasure lies in helping others. He participated in the musical concert at Balaji Garedens organized by Spread India, suryapet to provide basic facilities infrastructure in Govt.schools within the division. He said that he would participate in many programmes to load his money pocket but occasionally participate in such programmes as the above to load his heart with sweet memories. He stated that he would explore the soul hidden in the letters and sing in his own style. He said that those who walk and laugh never suffer from diseases. Gajal implies speaking to the beloved ones. He depicted that Gajal means worry, emotion, we should maintain the wetness in the heart. He compared the village to a mother and city to a mistress city asks us to bring money but village asks to come us. All these expressions are mixed with Gajals. Suggested that one should visit his native village at least once in a year. He promised that he would extend his co-operation for the activities of voluntary organizations. He said to laugh is yoga, cause somebody laugh is Bhoga and not to laugh is Roga (disease). Movie artist Rajitha and famous kuchipudi artist Sarala Kumari appreciated the programmes being organized by Spread India. Speaking on this occasion, president of Spread India P.Ramesh Reddy said that his organization was certainly on development of fundamental facilities in Govt.schools to improve educational standards. He thanked all who Co-operated for the success of the programme. Mallam Ramesh impressed the audience with his mimicry. Vasanth magician attached the audience by performing different magics. Other participants of the programme are Sri.B.L.Yadav, District president of TDP, Kolli Venkateshwarlu Ex.Market committee chairman, Peddireddy Raja, conciler such as Godala Ranga Reddy Rangineni Laxman Rao, Nallapati Apparao, doctors and people of the town.

Date: Feb 13, 2006

EENADU NEWS
GAJAL SRINIVAS PROGRAMME, SURYAPET.

To Laugh is a Yoga Not to Laugh is a Disease
THRILLED SURYAPET BY SRINIVAS GAJALS

The melody of Gajal srinivas thrilled the people of suryapet. There was a great response to the musical concert of Gajal srinivas at Balaji Gardens organized by Spread India on Sunday evening. Donors have contributed an amount of Rs. 1.5 Lakhs to provide basic facilities in some of the Govt.schools within the division. The magic performed by Vasanth before commencement of the programme impressed the audience. There were showers of laughter in response to the mimicry programme such as imitation of animal voices and movie artists and talking doll performed by mimicry artist Mr.Ramesh. Talking on this occasion Gajal srinivas said that it is a tradition of Gajal to give clear shape to thoughts & feelings of mind in the form of letters and display our soul beautifully. He said that it is a Yoga to laugh, to make others laugh is Bhoga and not to laugh is a Roga. Therefore everybody must savour this laughter people should strive for their fellow beings otherwise it the very purpose of life is useless. Mr. Srinivas, who impressed the audience with his witty expressions and thoughtful Gajals, extended a cheque of Rs. 1.50 lakhs to the president of Spread India, P.Ramesh Reddy. Following him, movie artist Rajitha announce Rs.10,000/- contribution to the organization.Speaking the famous Kuchipudi artist Sarala Kumari promised that she would extend co-operation to the extent possible to the programmes of Spread. Other participants of the programme are Sr.B.Lingaiah Yadav, District president of TDP, K.V, Godala Ranga Reddy, and Dr.Patel Somi Reddy.